New Ole Miss QB Barry Brunetti, a Memphis native, leads the Rebels against the BYU Cougars and their sophomore standout QB Jake Heaps in our Game of the Week.

College Football is Back!

The AutoZone Liberty Bowl staff is excited about the 2011 college football season. Each week we will be sending you the latest news and notes from the Bowl, as well as information about the key games and teams we are following leading up to Selection Sunday in December.

GAME OF THE WEEK - BYU at OLE MISS

(Saturday, 3:45 PM – ESPN)

This is the first meeting between the Rebels and the Cougars. Saturday's game marks the beginning of the 117th season of football at Ole Miss and the first time the Rebels have played a team from the state of Utah. Memphian Barry Brunetti, who played in the 2009 AutoZone Liberty Bowl High School All-Star Game, is slated to start at quarterback for Ole Miss.

EARLY BOWL PROJECTIONS

ESPN – USM vs. Tennessee (Schlabach); Houston vs. Tennessee (Edwards)
